CREW OF TWENTY THREE SAVED

Vessel Carried American Grain and Had Cleared from Baltimore for Rotterdam.

Amsterdam, April 16-The Netherands steamer Katwyk, from Baltimore to Rotterdam, was torpedoed Wednesday evening, while anchored seven miles to the west of the Nort's Hinder lightship in the North Sea. The crew of 23 men were saved and taken aboard the lightship. The Katwyk was a freight steamer. Built in 1903 she was 1287 net tons and 281 feet long. She sailed from Baltimore March 26 for Rotterdam and passed Dover the 14th. She carried 116,883 bushels of corn consigned to the Netherlands government. A dispatch to Renter's at London from Flushing reports the arrival there of the crew of the Katwyk. The men say that while the night watch was being changed a severe shock was felt and the ship began to take of May. water. As the steamer was sinking the crew took to the boats and while rowing away saw the periscope of a submarine which quickly disappeared. The Katwyk sank 15 minutes after the explosion.

Reuter's Amsterdam correspond ent says the Katwyk had been lying at anchor for 15 minutes when she was torpedoed on the port side. The correspondent says a message receiv ed from the Hook of Holland declares that all the ships lights were ourning at the time of the attack After the torpedo struck, the Katwyk caught fire and only the ship's pap ers could be saved.

The sinking of the Dutch steamer Katwyk is considered at The Hague the gravest incident o fthe submarine warfare, as it directly affects the Dutch government, to which the cargo of grain on board the steamer was consigned says a dispatch from the Netherland's capital. While awaii er vesterday, but declined to make

STATE CLEAN UP CAMPAIGN Greater Vermont Association Wants

State-Wide Campaign

The Greater Vermont association is suggesting to all civic and commer ciai organizations in Vermont the desirability of securing the co-operation of their committees and all local organizations in carrying on a clean up campaign the first week in May. It is especially important this year that campaign be a state-wide affair affecting every community, If Vermont is to play her part as an ideal state for residence and travel.

The following letter has been sent to the presidents and secretaries of Vermont civic and commercial org-

Denies Responsibility For Murder of Madero

Huerta Says He Would Have Won

New York, April 16-Vehemently asserting that he had nothing to do Gen. Victoriano Huerta, former provisional president of Mexico, issued a long signed statement here last night setting forth what he termed his side of the Mexican situation. Gen. Huerta declared that he knew who was responsible for Madero's death, but that he was keeping it as a "profes-

Gen. Huerta's statement reviewed the history of the Madero revolution and his accession to the provisional presidency, and he concluded with the assertion that "my country cannot be conquered," Sixteen millions of men, women and children would have to be killed before Mexico would submit to an invader, he as

This was made public last night in a white paper, giving the texts of the pressed his pleasure that they were | Chilian note protesting against the sinking of the Dresden and the British government's reply. The note delivered by the Chilian minister to Great Britain says that the Dresden anchored in Cumberland bay (Juan Fernandez island) March 9 and asked 'permission to remain eight days for the purpose of repair ing her engines, which were said to be out of order. The governor refused the request, as he considered Mrs. E. T. Griswold and Mrs. Willard it unfounded, and ordered the cap Lighthall, and Chas. D. Walker. The tain to seave the bay within 24 hours tain to seave the bay within 24 hours As the order was not complied with the captain of the Dresden was in formed that his ship was interned.

When the British squadron appear ed on March 14 the governor was proceeding to the cruiser Glasgow to inform the British officers of the steps he had taken, but he had to turn back, as the British ships opened fire on the Dresden, on which a flag of truce had already been hoist ed and called on her captain to sur render. The captain then gave or ders to blow up the magazine of the Dresden. "This act of hostility committed in Chilian territory waters by British naval squadron," says the Chilian minister, "has painfully surprised my government."

The British government, standing arose and adds: "On the facts as stated in the communication of the Chilian minister, the British government is prepared to offer a full and ample apology to the Chilian government." It is, however, pointed out that according to the British information the Dresden "had not ac cepted internment and still had her colors flying and her guns trained." The British reply continues: "If this is so, and if there were no mears available for enforcing the decision of the Chillan authorities to intern the Dresden, she might obvi ously, had not the British ships tak en action, have escaped, again to attack British commerce." It is add-"The captain of the Glasgow probably assumed, especially in view of the past action of the Dresden. that she was defying the Chilian au thorities and abusing Chillan neutral ity and was only waiting for a favor able opportunity to sally out and at tack British commerce again. HULK OF F4 EXAMINED Superstructure Caved In-Hull Full of Water.

Washington, April 16.-The super structure of the submarine F-4 is caved in and the hull is filled with water, probably from seepage, accord ing to a report at Honolulu made by Chief Gunner's Mate George D. Stillson, who late Wednesday descended to the ocean floor and examined the wreck after Frank Crilly, a diver had located it. Stillson, who made partial survey of the bulk, reported that, aside from the damage to superstructure, he was unable to find any other holes and that the plates were not crushed in. One of the lines used by the searchers it their attempts to locate the F4 had fouled in the superstructure. Work was to be begun yesterday, it was announced, to free the fouled line and to make others fast to the sub marine. Two lines are already fast to the wreck. Neither Crilly, who was under water two hours, nor Still on, who was submerged for an hour and a half, suffered ill effects, though, according to official nouncement by naval officers, submarine is lying at a depth of 288

While Admiral Pond could not go into details, because of his position he intimated that he considered the entire matter a loke, particularly concerning that part of the report which says that the Japanese covered the whole of the bay with

"I have no doubt that there are Japanese warships at or near Turtle Bay," said Admiral Pond, "but I do not believe that they have placed any mines. With their participation in the present European war, I can easily see why the Japanese Government should desire a fleet in these waters. The account of the Japanese warships being there has been put on official record and published fore today in connection with the recent visit of the British auxiliary Lena to this port, and also at other times. A Los Angeles reporter who went to Turtle Bay to learn why it was taking the Japanese so long to float the Asama, which was reported to have gone on the rocks on Dec. 21. returned and described what he saw, as follows: "Japanese marines and sailors, 4,000 strong, backed by four Japanese warships and six colliers, and supply ships, are occupying Turtle They were the Japanese cruisers Asama, Izumo, Tokioba and Chitose, the English colliers Lena, and Pretesillus of Liverpool, with the Japanese colliers Penang Maru, and Kand Kama siura of Tokio."

According to the correspondent's story, the harbor has been mined and ammunition by the ton was being taken inland. The Asama instead of being on rocks, was aground in soft mud, and could be taken off in a few hours' time, with the aid of a few good tugs, he said.
